Student _____ (the "Student") and PEMBROKE HOPKINS PARK CONSTRUCTION OUTREACH PROGRAM, an Illinois Not-For-Profit Corporation (the "School") agree as follows:

Tuition

Student hereby enrolls in the School Program (PHPCOP), which lasts four years from the date of Student's entry. Student shall pay tuition in the total amount of $ 0.00, for the four year Program. The Student understands and agrees that the School will invest a significant amount of additional administrative cost, time and resources in a Student's training who chooses "Field Education", which would be a lost if the Student fails or refuses to complete the four year Program. Therefore, Student agrees to complete the four year Program. Any student who chooses "Field Education" tuition shall be payable as follows:

Payment of "Field Education" Tuition *See note "C" below

Student agrees to pay "Field Education" tuition in one of the following ways:

1. In weekly installments, through check deduction authorized by student from employer, or through the use of Debit Card System approved by the Pembroke Hopkins Park Construction Outreach Program (PHPCOP) which shall debit the installments of tuition weekly in the following amounts and as follows:

- a. Thirty-three percent (33%) of Field Education income earned.
- b. A different amount as selected by the Student, as long as it is not less than the 33% amount.
- c. NOTEIf a student has no field education or chooses not to participate in field education, no tuition will be charged during the term of his/her enrollment at PHPCOP. (Field Education is defined as the opportunity by "STUDENT CHOICE" to participate in paid hands on training on an actual paying construction site.) Field Education is not mandatory for PHPCOP students, this is only an option made available by PHPCOP that a student may choose to "earn while you learn" to help support themselves while attending PHPCOP.

Student Obligations (See attached current School Rules and Regulations)

Student shall abide by the School Rules and Regulations, as currently distributed to Student and may be revised from time to time. At all times, Student is obligated to comply with the School Rules and Regulations, including any revisions made to them in the future.

Field Education

The Student shall comply with the requirements of the employer at which Student participates in the field education, and its site supervisor and representatives.

Default

The Student shall be considered in default if the Student does one or more of the following:

1. fails to faithfully attend classes and field education assignments;
2. fails to follow School Rules and Regulations;
3. fails to make tuition payments when due; or
4. alters the method of payment without prior approval from the School.

In the event of default, all tuition and fees shall become due immediately, and Student shall be responsible for all costs of collection and enforcement of this Enrollment Agreement, including attorney's fees and court costs.

School Policies and Disclosures

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

The student has the right to cancel the initial enrollment agreement until midnight of the fifth business day after the student has been accepted; and if the right to cancel is not given to any prospective student at the time the enrollment agreement is signed, then the student has the right to cancel the agreement at any time and receive a refund of all monies paid to date within 10 days of cancellation.

REFUND POLICY

When notice of cancellation is given before midnight of the fifth business day after the date of enrollment but prior to the first day of class, all application-registration fees, tuition, and any other charges shall be refunded to the student.

When notice of cancellation is given after midnight of the fifth business day following acceptance but prior to the close of business on the student's first day of class attendance, the school may retain no more than the application-registration fee which may not exceed $150 or 50% of the cost of tuition, whichever is less.

When notice of cancellation is given after the student's completion of the first day of class attendance, but prior to the student's completion of 5% of the course of instruction, the school may retain the application-registration fee, an amount not to exceed 10% of the tuition and other instructional charges or $300, whichever is less, and, subject to the limitations of paragraph 12 of this Section, the cost of any books or materials which have been provided by the school.

After the student has completed in excess of 5% of the course of instruction the school may retain the application-registration fee but shall refund a part of the tuition and other instructional charges computed prorate by days in class plus 10% of tuition and other instructional charges up to completion of 60% of the course of instruction.

When the student has completed in excess of 60% of the course of instruction, the school may retain the application/ registration fee and the entire tuition and other charges.

The refund policy for short courses up to 20 clock hours shall refund prorate up to 60% completion of the course.

A student, who on personal initiative and without solicitation enrolls, starts, and completes a course of instruction before midnight of the fifth business day after the enrollment agreement is signed, is not subject to the cancellation provisions of this refund policy.

Applicants not accepted by the school shall receive a refund of all tuition and fees paid within 30 calendar days after the determination of non-acceptance is made.

Application-registration fees shall be chargeable at initial enrollment and shall not exceed $150 or 50% of the cost of tuition, whichever is less.

Deposits or down payments shall become part of the tuition.

The school shall mail a written acknowledgement of a student's cancellation or written withdrawal to the student within 15 calendar days of the postmark date of notification. Such written acknowledgement is not necessary if a refund has been mailed to the student within the 15 calendar days.

All student refunds shall be made by the school within 30 calendar days from the date of receipt of the student's cancellation.

A student may give notice of cancellation to the school in writing. The unexplained absence of a student from a school for more than 15 school days shall constitute constructive notice of cancellation to the school. For purposes of cancellation the date shall be the last day of attendance.

A school shall refund all monies paid to it in any of the following circumstances: (a) the school did not provide the prospective student with a copy of the student's valid enrollment agreement and a current catalog or bulletin; (b) the school cancels or discontinues the course of instruction in which the student has enrolled; and (c) the school fails to conduct classes on days or times scheduled, detrimentally affecting the student.

A school must refund any book and materials fees when: (a) the book and materials are returned to the school unmarked; and (b) the student has provided the school-with a notice of cancellation.

AUTHORIZATION AND WAGE ASSIGNMENT

Name _____, Employer _____

I authorize and direct my employer to deduct from my wages every pay period an amount equal to 33% of my gross wages to pay for my school tuition at Pembroke Hopkins Park Construction Program, and direct that such amounts be so deducted and forwarded monthly to the School, together with all requested wage and hour payroll information. This authorization and assignment also extends and applies retroactively to any previous amounts deducted by my employer and remitted to the school. This authorization and assignment is voluntarily given and is not conditioned on my present or future membership in the School. I understand that executing this form is not a condition of continued employment. This authorization and assignment shall be irrevocable for the term of the applicable school membership agreement between me and my employer, or for four years, whichever is the lesser, and shall automatically renew itself for successive yearly or applicable membership agreement periods thereafter, whichever is the lesser, unless I give written notice of my desire to revoke same to my employer and the School at least thirty (30) but not less than sixty (60) days before any periodic renewal of this authorization and assignment.

I also acknowledge my right to be or remain a non-member. I understand that, if I choose to be or remain a non-member, I have the right to object to paying for activities not germane to the School's duties as my educational agent and to obtain a reduction in fees for such activities. I further understand that, upon my request, the school will provide me with sufficient information to make an intelligent decision whether to object and will apprise me of any internal School procedures that I must follow to file an objection.
